Status: Working disclosure document; technical confirmations pending.

PROJECT & TOKEN IDENTITY

01 / Vision

Build a recognizable online community around creativity, aspiration, and memorable original content. Lil Legend Coin is intended as a meme/community project. Holding the token does not provide company ownership, revenue rights, or an entitlement to future benefits.

02 / Project reference

Project name: Lil Legend Coin
Ticker: $LILLEGEND, as shown in the supplied artwork.
Intended network: Solana; live mint details require confirmation.
Launch reference: Pump.fun, based on the owner-supplied address.
Website: dopecoin.trade; /lillegend/ page prepared for upload.

03 / Token address

04 / Token economics

Total supply, decimals, distribution percentages, creator holdings, project-controlled wallets, and vesting arrangements are pending confirmation. No allocation percentages are adopted in this paper. Other project tokenomics do not automatically apply to LILLEGEND.

COMMUNITY & DEVELOPMENT

05 / Community direction

Potential initiatives include community artwork, memes, stories about aspirations, and brand-focused content. Contests, merchandise, partnerships, collectibles, rewards, or voting features may be evaluated later. They are exploratory ideas, not delivered features or binding commitments.

06 / Development roadmap

Foundation: Publish consistent branding, token references, and project documentation.
Transparency: Confirm on-chain settings, supply, allocations, project wallets, and liquidity.
Community: Develop original content and clear communication channels.
Exploration: Assess optional community features based on feasibility and demand. No fixed delivery dates are promised.

07 / Liquidity and trading

Pump.fun links identify the supplied token address. Trading availability, market depth, bonding-curve progress, migration status, and fees must be checked live. This paper does not claim locked or burned liquidity, revoked authorities, an audit, or a centralized-exchange listing.

08 / Website and communication

The accompanying page includes a linked contract address, copy and share tools, white paper download, explorer and tracker links, and access to the existing website's crypto tools. Existing RDC social accounts are used as shared project channels; dedicated LILLEGEND accounts have not been supplied.

09 / Third-party services

Existing crypto referral parameters are preserved from the website package. Affiliate services may pay a commission to the site. Their presence does not establish that LILLEGEND is supported or listed. Purchases and exchanges are handled by the providers. Brokerage functionality depends on the existing trade app's configuration.

TRANSPARENCY & DISCLOSURES

10 / Finalization checklist

Confirm and publish supply and decimals; material creator and treasury holdings; distribution rules; mint and freeze authorities; liquidity ownership and verifiable locks, if any; launch or migration records; and official channels. Technical claims should link to verifiable records.

11 / Security and risks

Never disclose seed phrases or private keys. Review wallet approvals and transaction details. Meme tokens are speculative and may lose substantial or all value. Thin liquidity, concentrated holdings, compromised accounts, malicious approvals, and technical failures can affect participants. There is no guaranteed profit, appreciation, adoption, liquidity, exchange listing, or future utility. This document is not personalized investment advice.

12 / Meaning of the brand

The artwork's slogans express the brand's theme. They are not a savings plan, a promised investment outcome, or a statement that purchases fund a child's education or benefit a named person. No charitable proceeds, beneficiary rights, or trust arrangements have been established in this document.

13 / Artwork and project independence

Use supplied imagery responsibly and obtain any necessary permissions for commercial use of personal likenesses and third-party marks. No sponsorship or endorsement by people or brands depicted is asserted. Lil Legend Coin, RDC, and 389P are separate token identities; shared website placement does not imply shared assets, token conversion, or holder entitlements.

14 / Version record

v1.0: Initial working edition using the supplied Lil Legend artwork and token address, with a corresponding website page. This edition remains open for confirmed technical disclosures and official channel updates.
